Tax matters including tax return filings are properly handled by the management of ZOLLUK by utilizing an external professional services firm who is sufficiently aware of the latest tax code and regulations relevant to ZOLLUK. ZOLLUK shares its tax return information with ZOLL Medical.

Attitude towards tax planning
ZOLLUK endeavors to compete fairly and freely, refrain from illegal business activities, promote sound business practices, and be faithful and sincere in all activities. Thus, all business transactions are undertaken in accordance with our ethical values, with the primary focus to comply with all applicable laws and ordinances. We make use of legislated tax incentives and exemptions approved by external advisers to support the long-term development of our company, but do not participate in any aggressive tax planning, or transactions which do not have a commercial purpose as their primary driver.

Level of risk in relation to taxation that we are prepared to accept
In relation to our UK tax affairs, ZOLLUK’s appetite for tax risk is low and we only structure our affairs based on sound commercial principles and in accordance to our ethical values and relevant tax legislation. Aggressive tax planning is not proactively considered and we do not engage in any operations that would compromise our ethical values, business objectives, ZOLLUK’s reputation and the reputation of our wider stakeholders.

Approach towards dealings with HMRC
We seek to maintain an open and transparent relationship with HMRC based on regular and open communication, fair negotiations, timely completion of its reporting obligations and payment of any taxes due. In situations where the tax law is unclear, we will seek advice from external tax advisers, and discuss any material issues upfront with HMRC. Should any disputes arise, we will maintain our honest and constructive manner with a view to achieving early agreement and resolution.

Our published UK tax strategy, satisfies Schedule 19 of the UK Finance Act 2016, in respect of our financial year ending March 2018.
